NOTE FOR: Director of Training

Dear

As you are aware, the Dean of the School of Government was briefed by on the work you are doing there in the systems dynamics curriculum. In the course of this, he inquired whether the Agency would consider providing several hours to the D.C.'s political science fall meeting to go over research methodologies. I forwarded the attached letter to the DCI with the note enclosed, and you see his response.

I have not called on the DDI or but I will send a copy of this letter along with my note to you. I have advised Fritschler of the Director's willingness to host the group for a period and to arrange a program, and in sending this note to you I am assuming you can pick up the ball from here. As you know, the IC Staff has very deep and direct interest in improving analytic methodologies, and if I can be of any assistance or involvement in this matter, please advise. You may want to contact Fritschler soon for further information.

NOTE FOR THE DIRECTOR

Bill:

Here is a request that CIA arrange for a few people to cover the subject of research methodology at D. C. Political Science Association. I believe this kind of thing provides our best side and suggest you approve the DD/I and Office of Training taking this on. [redacted] has a good story to tell as do [redacted] people.

STAT Dear [redacted]

STAT

Thanks for arranging the briefing with [redacted]. I found it very useful. Hopefully more will come of this for us. The next step is to set up a meeting with [redacted] [redacted] I'll do that as soon as he returns from Iran.

I mentioned the D.C. Political Science Association fall meeting. They would like a day (probably 4 hours) with the CIA to talk about research methodologies, etc. I gather it would be difficult to do this at your place. If so, we could probably arrange another location. Let me know if you think the idea has any merit.

Don and I will be in touch with you soon on next year's schedule. Thanks again for the courtesy of the invitation.

Sincerely,

A. Lee Fritschler,
Dean
